“GARNISHING SKILLS FOR SCHOOL NUTRITION”

Time: 7:30 am - 9:00 am

This will be an off-site session offered at UNC-G. Whether you were able to enjoy sessions in the past or maybe you missed the opportunity – it’s back! This year our new session “Garnishing Skills for School Nutrition” will give participants a hands on opportunity to learn the basic techniques of garnishing giving you the skills to learn like flower carvings, fruit carvings and ideas to enhance the looks of your serving lines. By the end of the session you will be a garnishing master and be given the confidence to bring your skills back to your school. Each session will be limited to 24 participants (limits are set based on the size of UNCG’s cooking lab). Transportation to and from the Sheraton to UNCG will be provided.

“GARNISHING SKILLS FOR SCHOOL NUTRITION”

Session Repeated

Time: 9:30 am - 11:00 am

Meet under the portico at Entry F, 30 minutes prior to the start of your session! This session takes place in UNCG’s food lab – Please dress in appropriate kitchen work attire. Slip resistant shoes are required to participate. The Endowment committee is excited to present this educational session at this year’s annual conference for SNA-NC. The session is co-sponsored by the Nutrition and Dietetics’ Department at UNC Greensboro.
