

SNA Cafeteria Site Visits Sweepstakes

Help promote school nutrition programs and win a Free Trip to LAC 2016!

As the School Nutrition Association (SNA) continues to promote school nutrition programs, we are encouraging our members to join us by inviting their Members of the U.S. Congress to tour their cafeterias.

As an incentive, ONE randomly selected SNA Member will win a trip for two to LAC 2016!

LAC 2016 will be an exciting conference as SNA Members “Charge the Hill” to continue the education of Congressional Members and staff on the importance of feeding our children as well as the work behind the scenes.

The winner will enjoy free registration for two, hotel accommodations for two, and flights as well as be recognized during the Opening Session. SNA will also reserve a VIP table per winner at LAC 2016 for themselves and guests. Each time you host or invite a Member of the Senate or House of Representatives, you may submit an entry and SNA will accept video, news articles, press releases, or photos. We will accept entries from cafeteria visits and invitations that have occurred since July 1, 2015.

To enter the “SNA Cafeteria Site Visits Sweepstakes,” you must be a SNA member and must submit entries by December 31, 2015. Please send proof to SNA’s Government Affairs and Media Relations team, at advocacy@schoolnutrition.org or fax it to 301-686-3115 in the form of pictures, videos, thank you letters, or any other form of media that shows a sitting Member of Congress visited your school. NO PURCHASE NECESSARY.

So how do you get started? SNA’s Guide to Cafeteria Site Visits can be found here and provides step by step guidance on how to reach out and set up a visit with your Member of Congress. In general, the best time to set up a visit is during District Work Periods when Members of Congress are working in their home states. The Senate Calendar is here and the House Calendar can be located here. You can wrap up your school year with a tour, show off your summer feeding site, or bring them in as you highlight new fall menus! All Members of Congress love to see what your students are doing.

Thank you for your hard work! We know that every time a Member of Congress visits a school, they truly understand the importance of the work you all do!
