

PEER REVIEWERS FOR 2019

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The contributions of the individuals listed below are key to producing a peer-reviewed publication. These individuals graciously responded to requests to review manuscripts submitted to the Journal during the 2019 year. Several reviewers agreed to multiple assignments over the year. Their understanding of research methodology and operational aspects of child nutrition programs is essential to ensuring articles published in the Journal are credible. The Journal of Child Nutrition and Management provides research or evidence to support informed decision-making that can be useful in all aspects of child nutrition.

Please join me in thanking these individuals!

Catherine
